HAPEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
HAPEVILLE, GEORGIA

DEDICATION

Devoted teacher, distinguished poet, friend—that is our Miss Daisy Frances Smith.

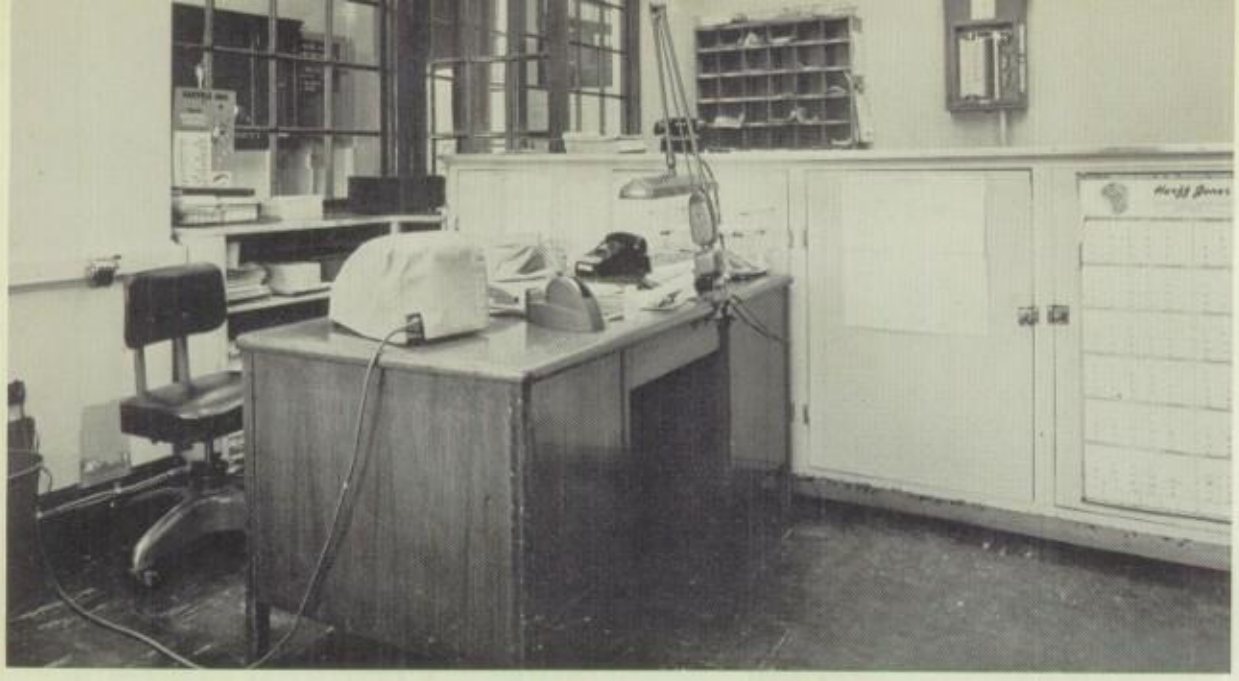
With heart of love, with appreciation for talent, and with gratitude for friendship, the seniors wish to thank Miss Smith for constant encouragement to every individual student.

Her sincerity and warmth of heart have made a special place in our hearts.

To her the Staff dedicates this twenty-second edition of the Hilltop.

I dedicate my brilliant ~~mad~~ mind and my brilliant ideas to the girl who is stupid enough to take it, who might be the dumb and only Theresa Davies which will soon be Mrs. D. D. Renfroe. (Jonnys)

MISS DAISY FRANCES SMITH



Clerk's office is spacious, well-equipped, and convenient to serve teachers, students, and the "public."

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICES ASSURE PRIVACY AND CONFIDENCE

The assistant principal's office is the hub of all inner offices—attractive and private, even the telephone.

Counselor's private office, one of three areas for student conferences.

Check point teachers: the mailbox, the time clock, the "hot seat" for students.

Special corner just outside principal's office.

HAPEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

ITS PURPOSE AND ITS PROGRAM

Hapeville High School is more than an institution—it is the axis of community activites, emphasizing teen-age life at its best. Hapeville has always been a community of academic citizens—proud of its professional and cultural background. These interests are therefore natural projections into the high school program of Hapeville's youth. During its twenty-four years of history, Hapeville High has developed a tradition of integrity, of learning, and of devotion to high values.

Offering a preparatory program in the required college academic courses and in terminal vocational training for the business world, teachers work with students in an atmosphere of free thinking and self-government—toward the art of living together, and liking it.

It is the aim of the school to promote an all-round program that provides tomorrow's leaders; to inspire students to be worthy of its traditions; to encourage them to make a noble contribution to the community. The Hilltop is but the pictorial story of the 1963 program.

When day is done vacated areas speak loud of the day's busiest spots. Locker-dates have moved on to the soda bar. Cafeteria silence after noon stampede creaks loud. Library shelves show books once again in order. Telephone booths go on forever. Main hall bulletin board is a silent reminder.

Dial M for Midge.

THE ADMINISTRATION

COUNTY PERSONNEL

Mr. Paul D. West has won the respect and love of teachers and students alike with his personal interest and capable administration. He and Mr. MacRae have worked together constantly to raise academic standards and to provide greater opportunities for Fulton County's youth. Mr. Aaron, Superintendent of Building, keeps busy providing facilities for the ever-increasing student population.

Both Mr. West and Mr. MacRae have served as principal at Hapeville; and while they are ever conscious of the needs of all Fulton County schools, they seem to be a special part of the Halls of Hapeville.

Mr. Aaron, Mr. West, Mr. MacRae

SUPERINTENDENTS

Paul D. West . . . . . Superintendent of Schools
Douglas G. MacRae . . . . . Superintendent of Instruction

Through Hapeville High's ensuing twenty-four years, the HILLTOP has become an institution within itself. Its consistent rating as a distinctive yearbook among the nation's best, commends the character of student life reflected within its pages.

It speaks honorably for a community that supports the school's every undertaking. It compliments a staff of teachers dedicated to the task of training the youth of that community.

It is good to know one has been a part of that institution, both as a participant in school life and as an editor, preserving for posterity another year's record toward the school's fine heritage.

On behalf of the seniors, it is a pleasure for the HILLTOP staff to present this twenty-second volume of the HILLTOP to the faculty and the students of Hapeville High School.

May they continue to uphold tradition, to honor academic achievement, to play the game fairly, and thereby to maintain a good record.

THE EDITORS

AN INTRODUCTION TO - - -
VOLUME XXII

Douglas Purdie, Counselor

In addition to counseling, Mr. Purdie administers an endless battery of tests, registers new students, and keeps records.

Max E. McBrayer, Principal

Mr. McBrayer, a native of Marietta, has come to Hapeville High from Sandy Springs, where he was head football coach for five years. Before coming to Hapeville, he had taught at Osborne High in Cobb County.

His philosophy as principal at Hapeville may be summed up in his own words to the students:

The goal of our administration and faculty is to have the best school possible.

Eppie Redwine, Office Clerk

Mrs. Redwine answers the telephone, handles money, gives tardy slips, writes the principal's letters, sends out transcripts, and looks after clinic patients.

Frances Spratling, Assistant Principal

Miss Spratling strives to maintain the high scholastic standards at H.H.S. Her selfless devotion contributes an important part of school spirit.

TEACHERS AND CURRICULUM

DETERMINE DEPTH OF PROGRAM

LANGUAGE ARTS

Cultures of warmth and beauty are derived from the study of foreign languages, from music, from art itself. Latin translations, Spanish pronunciation all seem difficult from year to year; orchestrations and harmony come only after persistent practice.

Foreign languages, however, help one's English and broaden one's taste in literature. Music and art cultivate appreciation for finer quality of life.

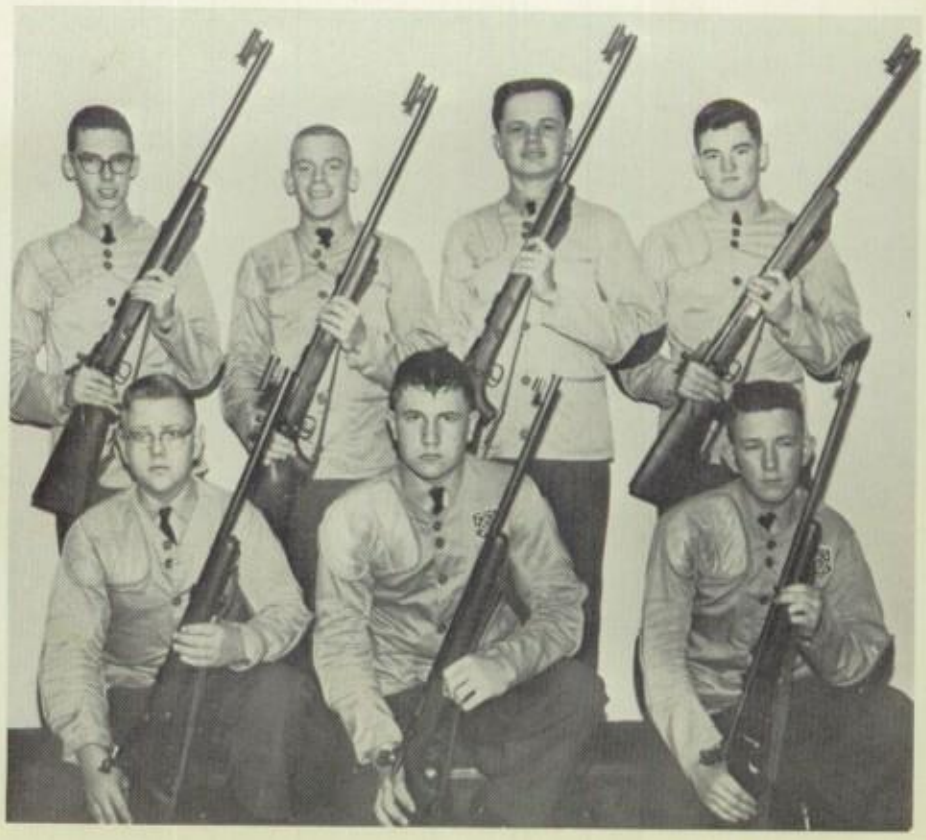
HIGH ACHIEVEMENT

Company B consists of three outstanding platoons with excellent records. This company was the Best Drilled company in last year's competition between Hapeville, Russell, and College Park.

Through diligence and practice, Company B has inculcated into the cadets habits of orderliness and precision. Platoon leaders have a high sense of personal honor and deportment.

Third Platoon is on the ball.

Rifle team fires with the best.



First Platoon listens for roll call.

Second Platoon moves out.

COMPANY "C" EXCELLS

Company C completes Hapeville's Battle Group, having won its share of acclaim for participation in County Competition. Under capable leaders Company C shows great respect for discipline and thereby respect for constitutional authority and the development of patriotism. The example which this company has set for the other companies is envious.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT COUNCIL OPERATES

The Student Council represents the leadership of student body whose objective is to foster constructive cooperation between students and teachers. The Student Council sponsors orientation for eighth-graders during registration week. It sponsors the Fall Ball, its social complimentary to eighth-graders, but open to all students. The Student Council remembers the janitorial staff at Christmas with bountiful baskets of food and gifts. It also presents the Faculty-Take-Off, a caricature delineation of cooperative teachers, as one of its money-making schemes. What the Student Council does with the money benefits the entire school. Such projects as buying furniture for the counselor's outer office and the principal's office, framing awards to hang in the office, and adding to the curtain fund begun last year keep the Council busy the year through.

HAPEVILLE HORNETS FINISH SEASON IN FIFTH PLACE

The Hornets played their own brand of football—with such teamwork that coaches Brown and Daniel were proud, even in defeat. Two defeats early in the season and the loss of a closely contested game with College Park showed the Hornets would have to run faster and block harder than ever to come out ahead at the end of the season.

At Sandy Springs, the Hornets proved they had learned their lesson well. The Big Green Team drove to a 0-0 tie with the Panthers; won the next four games, piling up a season record of five wins, four losses, and one tie.

HORNETS team up to stop RAM halfback.

Traditionally the HORNETS redouble their efforts with College Park. Hapeville took the initial kickoff across the Rams' goal line for a touchdown in the first two minutes of the game. And that was about it for the Hornets. The Rams repeatedly hammered through Hapeville lines, defeating the Hornets 28-6.

At Sandy Springs it was a different story. Hornets teamwork and drill proved itself to be a match for the Panthers. The 0-0 tie with Hapeville knocked Sandy Springs out of a chance at the Region championship. Team spirit was a moral victory for the Hornets. The Hornets finished with five decisive victories.

JUNIORS ACHIEVE STATUS IN ACTIVITIES FOR 63-64

JUNIOR RANK IS THE ENVIED SPOT IN THE FILE—THE BUDDING LEADERSHIP COMES INTO ITS OWN WITH ANOTHER YEAR TO ENJOY IT. POLITICS, ATHLETICS, CLUB OFFICIALS, FORMAL SOCIALS—THAT IS THE LIFE OF THE JUNIOR AT HHS—WHEN HE IS NOT SOLVING PROBLEMS, BALANCING EQUATIONS, WRITING THEMES, RESEARCHING BIOGRAPHIES AND SUCH—IN A VERY ACADEMIC MANNER.

Junior academics work hours on National Merit exams.

SOPHOMORES AT HAPEVILLE RUN HARD COURSE

OUR SOPHOMORES ARE THE LIVELIEST PEOPLE ON THE HILL, ALWAYS RUSHING TO CLUB MEETING; TO THE PEP RALLY; TO A "BEST SEAT" IN ASSEMBLY; TO THE LUNCH LINE; TO STUDENT COUNCIL HALL DUTY (7:45 A.M.); TO VARIOUS TRY-OUTS; TO REHEARSALS; TO CLASSES (AND A QUICK REVIEW BEFORE THE CAESAR TEST); TO THE LOCKER—TO SEE IF HE IS THERE. AH! RUSH IS OVER—THEN THE WALK HOME, THE LONG WAY ROUND. SOPHOMORES ARE IN SUCH A HURRY TO GROW UP.

FUSSY FRESHMEN HAVE THEIR FUN IN "SPITE OF"

FUN AND FUSS COMPRISE A FRESHMAN'S DAY AT SCHOOL. EVERYTHING IS THE "MOST"—SIMPLY DEVINE. BOY MEETS GIRL AND FUSS, FUSS. BUT THEY SOON LEARN —WHICH PATHS ARE PRIVATE ROUTES HOME; WHAT KIND OF SODA IS POPULAR; WHERE THE OTHER'S LOCKER IS—AND JUST HOW THE SCHEDULES MATCH. IF ONLY A FRESHMAN DID NOT HAVE TO BOTHER WITH ENGLISH, LATIN, SCIENCE AND ALGEBRA! SCHOOL WOULD BE EVEN MORE FUN—TO A FRESHMAN.

SUBFRESHMAN OFFICERS

Edward Goss — Bruce Palmer — Anthony Kirklan — Stanley Beavers

AND THEIR SUBFRESHMEN CLASSMATES ARE THE "DOLLS" OF THE SCHOOL . . . SO LITTLE! THEY GET LOST IN THE SCRAMBLE . . . TOO LITTLE TO REACH TOP LOCKERS OR TO CUT-IN THE LUNCH LINE . . . OR TO STOP AT THE CORNER DRUG . . . OR TO ATTEND FORMALS (IN DRESS-UP STYLE). BUT BIG ENOUGH FOR THE LATEST LIP-STICK, THE BIGGEST PURSE TO BE HAD . . . OR TO QUIT USING THAT GREASY KID STUFF . . . AND THEY ARE DYNAMITE! THE BIG NOISE AT THE GAMES, AS WELL AS THE HIGH GRADES ON THE REPORTS. INDEED, THEY ARE THE "DOLLS."

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES REDDICK

Some senior English students show what it was like to be a pilgrim to Canterbury, with Chaucer.

Editors clear schedule through the office for HILLTOP Senior Beauty Show.

SENIORS' DRESS-UP OCCASIONS

Hapeville's dirtiest HOBOES tease students in assembly.

Hapeville's beauties look pretty for Juno's camera.

To be ridiculous is to be sublime when seniors get together.

Feature Editors chew their pencils as judges argue over Hapeville's best looking seniors.

Twelve senior maids a-waiting the judges' SAY-SO: The Fairest of Them All.

Twelve senior boys had the Most in the HILLTOP Beauty Revue.

Ann Battles the Ad. Business.

Carol Chances another audit of accounts.

Thelma Singles a Ton of Ad to press.

Harold Pirkles the sports pics.

St. John and Green jig-saw, way back when—

IN CLASS OR OUT, FOLKS AT HHS HAVE OODLES OF FUN

Sometimes company comes for lunch—Mr. MacRae hears words of wisdom from counselors.

"Sadie" Phillips Hawks Eddie for Fall Hop.

Sgt. Manley just helps out everybody in his "manly" way.

Coach Campbell directs current events in classes.

Dear "Mavis",
Maybe someday you will get to leave the home but never forget that while you are here that we are your Little Dipsticks for stations for W.P.-I.D.
We're Poor
